For we do not proclaim ourselves, but Christ Jesus as Lord.

2 Corinthians 4:5

Dear Faithful Servants of Christ,

At a recent council meeting, I shared a message from Bishop Burk of the Southeastern Iowa Synod to which we are a part of. Recent studies have indicated there are 4 marks or "vital signs" that are leading indicators of whether or not a community of disciples is alive and growing. Below is that message.

In the communities of faith where things seem to be "working," where a shared future looks bright, the people consistently hear and experience the good news of Jesus Christ. The apostle Paul calls this good news, "the gospel," which he understood to be the announcement of Jesus Christ, the telling of his death and resurrection and his presence in the Spirit. This gospel is the very ground of faith in God and is the source of love turning toward a world in need. Paul goes on to insist that the gospel = Jesus Christ. This means that in the proclamation (the telling of Jesus), Christ is present. To share this good news is to give Jesus to others. Life together in healthy congregations is shaped by the proclamation that, in Christ, God loves the world—the whole world. There is no one beyond God's loving reach. This good news shapes every aspect of shared ministry in communities where faith is alive and growing. This first mark of vitality looms over all the others. It is the primary "driver" of what it means to be the church. Without it, nothing about mission or ministry as followers of Jesus makes any sense.

As we continue in our life together, I believe these are words important for us to remember in all we do. The questions to keep in the forefront of our minds is, "Are we proclaiming the good news of Jesus Christ? How is what we are doing sharing the fact that, in Christ, God loves the world—the whole world?" Each of us are part of this community of disciples for a variety of reasons. Some enjoy the fellowship. Some want to worship. Some want to be involved in the variety of ministries and service opportunities. Yet, we all come with one reason and that is because of the love of Jesus Christ revealed to us and as a result we love our Lord and Savior and wish to share that love with one another and the world.

I wish not to imply we are not already doing this because we are; however, like other aspects of our life we often need to step back, take a look, and possibly reevaluate and look for new opportunities for growth. Our lives are constantly predicated on questions such as "What shall I eat for lunch today?" or "Why is my throat sore? Should I go to the doctor?" or "Where should we go for vacation next summer?" I have read somewhere that each day 25,000-50,000 thoughts go through our brains and I suspect many of those are in the form of a question. What if we moved the questions above to the front of the list or simply asked, "How can I share the love of Jesus Christ today?" This isn't one more thing to do; but, rather it is joy and gift we are invited into because of the amazing grace and love God has abundantly given us through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord.

Thank You

The following was received from the the West Branch Public Library for the work we did on September 9th during God's work, our hands Sunday.

Members of Bethany Lutheran Church, The library staff, on behalf of everyone involved in the operation of the library, would like to extend our sincerest thanks for all of the work you put in on Sunday to help the library, our users, and the community. It's been years since our planted area here looked that clean and the community room and window frames have been in need of paint for longer. Everything honestly looks amazing and we can't extend enough gratitude for your efforts. Thank you!

For photos of the work done at the library and other projects from that day, please see pages 6 & 7.

Bethany Books

by Frank Frostestad

No matter which side of the political divide you find yourself most of us are frustrated with the news that we hear daily about our government in Washington. With the midterm elections next month we wonder about its implications for Congress. An interesting book that I have found that has a message for us is Keeping Faith In Congress: Why Persistence, Compassion, And Teamwork Will Save Our Democracy by Lois Capps. She was a member of the U.S. House of Representatives from 1998-2017. She says: "I'm not the kind of person who lectures others. As you'll see in the pages that follow, my Norwegian Lutheran midwestern upbringing precludes that sort of thing." So what was this daughter of a pastor doing in politics? Through the telling of stories, each with a theme, we can see how coming to Congress was for her a fulfillment of her religious calling to serve others. In her role of "servant leader" she tried to work for the common good. She did not just talk bipartisanship but continually sought common ground with those across the aisle. She makes it clear that our communities and country are stronger when everyone has a place at the table. The answer to the problems facing our country is not cynicism but active participation. She was voted the Nicest Member of the House.

Jacqueline A. Bussie in Love Without Limits: Jesus radical vision for love with no exceptions states that love is how we can overthrow hate and heal hurt in today's divided world. She gives practical solutions for people who want to love across difference. She challenges readers to answer God's call to practice a love so vast that it excludes no one.

Faith In Action is a short book that gives a quick dive into 12 different topics by as many authors. Each topic includes informative visuals and data, as well as practical suggestions for what you can do to make a difference in your community. This is a book for you if you are ready to make a difference.

Books for Children

We have received a number of new children's books from Augsburg (Spark House Family). Three of these are board books for ages 0-3. Frolic Board Books playfully introduce basic faith concepts in a way that is fun and appropriate for very small children. In Thank You, God: A book about thankfulness the frolic animals thank God for the gifts of sunshine, playtime, friends and love. Children are shown to look at the world around them and find blessings to be grateful for.

God Made Feelings helps children explore and express feelings. God made us with all sorts of emotions. These include: joy, boredom, shyness, anger, and happiness. What do these feel like? How can we handle them? This book offers calming and coping strategies for difficult emotions. It includes a parent guide to help parents. In I Can Help Rufus, Ava, Jo, Uri, and Hal discover different ways they can show love and care for others by helping.

I will display the next six books now but talk about each one individual in coming newsletter articles. They are appropriate for 2-5 year olds. They are: Rufus And His Angry Tail, Uri And The Very Busy Day, Jo And The Slow Soup, Rufus Loses His Cape, Happy Birthday Ava, Ava And The Skimpy Picnic

Quarter Tube

For quite sometime now we have had a clear tube on a stand in the hallway leading to the Great Hall in which you can drop quarters in. In the past, these quarters went toward funding the Operation Backpack program at Hoover Elementary that sends food supplies home over the weekend with children who need them. The good news is that program is fully funded by the Chip Away at Childhood Hunger golf tournament.

The quarters in that tube were $82. I recently learned of a new need at the Middle School. Some students were also in need of a small snack to take home or even have in the morning. Thus, it was decided to use these funds to purchase snacks. See the photo below of what was purchased. Thank you very much and keep dropping quarters in that tube please! - Pastor Chad

Community Prayer Service

The West Branch Area Religious Council (WBARC) invites all people to attend a Community Prayer Service of Unity, Peace, and Healing. This will be a very short service and those who have attended in the past found very meaningful. We hope you will attend and bring a friend or two with you.

When: Sunday, October 28 @ 6:00 p.m.
Where: Village Green Gazebo (Across from Fire Station)
Who: All are Welcome!

Words of Life

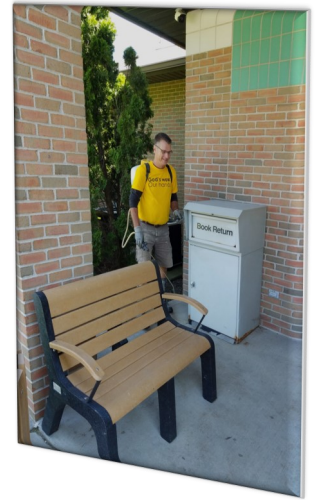

The word cloud above was created using words submitted by the congregation during a recent worship service. These are words of life that sustain the people of God. In some instances, phrases, a complete Bible verse, or Psalm were listed in which case key words from those were used. Larger words represent words referred to more often than others. Thanks for sharing everyone!

Hope Chest News

First off, I want to thank each of you for your financial giving! It may not be said enough, but your faithful stewardship is an expression of your faith and love for Jesus Christ and helps us in our proclamation of the gospel of Jesus Christ. Some of those gifts help meet various needs of people in our community in a variety of ways. One of those is through the Community Hope Chest. I also want to thank you for the donated items many of you give and I want to thank Neil and Chris Korsmo. They spend a great deal of time sorting donations, changing over spring and summer clothes to fall and winter clothes and welcoming and assisting those who visit the Hope Chest. Additionally, thanks to all others who have assisted with the Hope Chest over the years.

Recently, Paula and I assisted a client who was in. This individual was in need of shoes for one of her children. Using the monetary gifts you all faithfully give, I was able to go out and purchase a pair of shoes as we often don't have shoes on hand. When this woman picked them up, she expressed how grateful she was as they had recently incurred some unforeseen expenses and this would be a tremendous help. We had some small talk and I said "You are welcome" and then wished her well as she left; but, in hindsight, I only wish I had heeded my own advice from my newsletter article on the front page and said something to the affect, "You are welcome! We are grateful we can help and share the love of Christ with you." Or, something along those lines. Short. Simple. And then let the Holy Spirit do the rest. Next time, I will try and move those questions from the front page to the front of my mind. Yes, the Hope Chest is an out word reflection of Christ's love through our actions; however, we also need to verbally proclaim that love.—Pastor Chad

COMMUNITY HOPE CHEST

October is the time of transition from spring/summer to fall/winter at the HOPE CHEST. We are now accepting new or gently used FALL/WINTER clothing and shoes for all ages.

THANK YOU to all who continue to support the Hope Chest and its mission to serve those in need.

*I needed clothes and you clothed me.—

Warming Hearts with God's Love and a Good Pair of Mittens

Far too often, children arrive at LSI's Beloit and Bremwood Residential Treatment Centers with very little in their possession.

We give thanks for Iowa congregations who faithfully respond to these needs, year after year! As winter approaches, LSI relies on your loving support to meet the demands for winter apparel for children and youth at Beloit and Bremwood. Often, children in residential treatment have little control over their lives, so it's important for us to give children the opportunity, when possible, to shop for their new coat or mittens. Because of this, we ask that you please not donate articles of clothing. With your generous financial donation, many children will have the simple joy of choosing their new coat, knowing that they are loved and cherished.

If you would like more information, please contact Deb Whitford, LSI director of philanthropy and church relations, at Deborah.Whitford@LSIowa.org or 563-676-2065.

Our Mission: Lutheran Services in Iowa responds to the love of Jesus Christ through compassionate service. LSI is an affiliated social ministry partner of the Iowa congregations of the ELCA (Evangelical Lutheran Church in America) and a member of LSA (Lutheran Services in America). We proudly serve people of all ages, abilities, religions, sexes, gender identities, national origins, ethnicities, races, and sexual orientations. A Loving Companion

When Tatyana came to LSI's Bremwood Residential Treatment Center in Waverly, she was lonely.

She lost her mom at a young age, and her father was incarcerated. She didn't have anyone to look up to, and the only way she knew how to cope with trauma and anger was by yelling and hitting. When she began seeing her LSI therapist, she wasn't comfortable talking about her difficult past.

Then she met a new friend, Max. Max is a three-year-old yellow Labrador Retriever, and a friendly face to everyone he sees on Bremwood's campus. Thanks to a generous donation by a local church and through a partnership between LSI and Retrieving Freedom, Max is now the official therapy dog at Bremwood.

Max has been working with Tatyana for over a year now. He sits on the sofa next to her during every therapy session, which makes her feel safe talking to her LSI team. Tatyana practices calmly giving Max commands like "sit" or "stay," which is teaching her that her voice is heard without needing to yell. She is using a calmer voice when she talks to others on campus too.

The children and teens at Bremwood love seeing Max each day. And when more children like Tatyana walk through the doors for the first time, Max is there, ready to be a friendly face and let them know they will be loved and cared for at LSI.

BETHANY LUTHERAN CHURCH
COUNCIL MINUTES August 2018

The meeting was called to order by President Kaufman. Present were Jon Twing, Nancy Bruns, Beth Kaufman, Linda Black, Wayne Frauenholtz, Alan Beyer, and Pastor Chad. Absent were Tonya Samuelson, Jamie Zimmerman, and Cheryl Fischer.

Pastor's Report: In lieu of devotions, Pastor listed several things that he had been doing and thinking about since our last meeting. He's dealing with computer problems this week. He is rejoicing about his week at Camp EWALU. He is changing how he sends in the bulletin to celebrate the gift of Christ to reach neighbors beyond our borders. His July vacation break was good. June was very busy with many pastoral visits. VBS was great with up to 42 students involved; the counsellors were great. He is working with youth to realize the importance of outreach such as the backpack program (They have raised $6000.), the Food Pantry, and WBARC.

Secretary's Report: Pastor felt that the credit card issued to Del Hughes should indicate that he was designated on behalf of the Building and grounds Committee. Linda moved and Wayne seconded to accept the secretary's report as amended. Motion passed.

Treasurer's Report: Budget numbers are similar to last year and expenses are below budget. Wayne moved and Jon seconded to approve the treasure's report. Motion passed.

Building and Grounds: No report. A short discussion was held about Curt Casper's condition and the long term plans. No action was taken.

Education: No report. Pastor said that he, Amber, and Tonya will be meeting tomorrow night.

Evangelism: The church will be hosting a blood drive on Tuesday September 11th. A few ideas were discussed about outreach for our church at this time.

Fellowship: Fourth Sunday suppers are taken care of for August and September. Pastor said that the confirmation class will do October. Next Sunday, the 19th, there will be a meeting in the Great Hall for families with young children. A small bounce house will be provided. This is an informal gathering but would like for them to discuss how Bethany can serve to help children grow in their faith and, also, would they like to meet on a regular basis as a parent support group.

Stewardship: No report. Time and talent sheets will be distributed later this fall.

Worship and Music: Linda talked to Tame Irmie about banners for the great hall to supplement the sound abatement panels and to add more color to the room.

Old Business:

- Discussion was held regarding our church's outreach ministry and sharing of resources. Alan moved and Linda seconded to give $500 each to Chaplaincy Program at U of Iowa Hospitals and to Free Indeed Ministry at the prison in Anamosa. Motion passed. Jon moved and Linda seconded to use funds from Mission Investment Fund.
- Linda contacted Deanna regarding the Sagert Memorial Fund. It was specifically designated for nighttime lighting of the cross on the altar. The council decided to use the interest from this account to be placed in the general fund to pay for the costs.

New Business:

- Pastor sent out a report on God's Work Our Hands plans. Various projects will be done at the public library, including painting their meeting room and outdoor cleanup. Outdoor cleanup will be done at Bethany. Lutheran Disaster Relief Personal Care Kits will be assembled. Breakfast will be served at 9:00 followed by a shortened worship service prior to doing our annual day of service.

Meeting adjourned with the Lord's Prayer.

Faith at Home

These short Bible passages and reflection starters are one more way we are trying to spur conversation about faith at home and also absorb ourselves in the word of God. We hope you find them beneficial.

Hebrews 11:1

Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen.

- For me, faith is hoping...
- For me, faith is believing...
- For me, faith is living...

Titus 3:5-6

He saved us, not because of any works of righteousness that we had done, but according to his mercy, through the water of rebirth and renewal by the Holy Spirit. This Spirit he poured out on us richly through Jesus Christ our Savior.

- Trying to be good enough, or righteous enough for God...
- Receiving mercy, pardoned and forgiven...
- God Spirit poured out and as a part of me...

Exodus 15:1-3

Then Moses and the Israelites sang this song to the Lord: "I will sing to the Lord, for he has triumphed gloriously; horse and rider he has thrown into the sea. The Lord is my strength and my might, and he has become my salvation; this is my God, and I will praise him, my father's God, and I will exalt him. The Lord is a warrior; the Lord is his name."

- God being imaged as a warrior...
- Singing songs to God...
- I lean on God's strength, might and healing salvation...

Daily Bible Readings

The foundational premise of this set of daily readings is their relationship to the Sunday lectionary. The readings are chosen so that the days leading up to Sunday (Thursday through Saturday) prepare for the Sunday readings. The days flowing out from Sunday (Monday through Wednesday) reflect upon the Sunday readings. The complete Daily Lectionary is also found on pages 1121-1153 of our hymnal, Evangelical Lutheran Worship.
