

Where Did It Go?

There's something you won't hear this Sunday during worship: the word Alleluia! Lent is a serious, sometimes sad, time. You will hear Alleluia again on Easter Sunday.

Alleluia is a word used for praise and celebration. In the word search below, find some other words that celebrate God. Words are forward, backward, up, down, and diagonal. Hint: Every word ends in the letter E.

Lent 1

- Today is the first Sunday in Lent.
- There are six Sundays in Lent before we celebrate Easter.
- The symbol we see for Lent is a road leading to a cross.
- The road reminds us of Jesus' journey to the cross.

Journey of Faith

Think of a journey you have taken. How many steps did it take to get there? Jesus took many journeys. He traveled many places to teach people about God. Unscramble these words to find out his important message.

Bible Tip!

Genesis is more than just the creation story. The stories of Noah, Abraham, Sarah, Isaac, Rebekah, Jacob, and Joseph are all part of the book of Genesis. There are 50 chapters total!

A Hidden Message

Sometimes we want things that aren't good for us. Some of the foods below are healthy and some of them only taste good. Use the chart below to decode the message. The healthy food in row one will tell you the first letter. The healthy food in row two will give you the second letter. Continue this pattern to learn the good news about making bad decisions.
